

Anaplan for finance

Financial planning and consolidation

Unify your financial planning and consolidation on a single platform

Ready to break down the silos between actuals and plans? Many finance teams struggle with disconnected consolidation and planning processes, leading to delayed close cycles, inconsistent reporting, and misalignment between actuals, forecasts, and plans.

Without connecting these critical processes, data discrepancies, compliance risks, and inefficiencies pile up. It's time for a smarter, end-to-end solution that finance can own and maintain themselves — one that supports your unique business needs instead of limiting them.

There's a better way to plan, record, and report

Connect your consolidation and planning processes. Only Anaplan delivers best-in-class solutions for both — linking planning, budgeting, and forecasting (PB&F), and financial consolidation on a unified platform to put the power back in the hands of your finance teams. Our financial planning and consolidation solution delivers real-time alignment, faster close cycles, improved accuracy, and greater agility so you can make confident, data-driven decisions and ensure financial performance excellence in an ever-evolving business environment.

Key benefits

Boost agility: Instantly assess the impact of changes on consolidated results with dynamic scenario planning. Finance teams can fully own and manage their models, unlike other solutions that require IT or third-party support.

Improve accuracy and real-time alignment: Ensure forecasts and budgets reflect the latest consolidated actuals for more informed decision-making. Our customers have reported up to a 20% improvement in forecast accuracy.

Reduce risk and improve compliance: Maintain a single source of truth to reduce reconciliation errors, enable a full audit trail, and promote regulatory compliance.

Increase finance team efficiency by up to 40%: Free your finance teams from manual tasks so they can focus on strategic insights that optimize decision-making and drive profitable business growth.

Cut close and reporting time by up to 90%: Automate intercompany eliminations, currency translations, reporting, and more to reduce manual work and accelerate consolidation.

Accelerate time to value: Harness our prebuilt, cloud-based solutions for planning, consolidation, and reporting. Get best practices, calculations, and templates out-of-the-box that are backed by a powerful, flexible platform that are configurable to your business needs and can quickly scale to support growth.

Leverage conversational AI: Quickly extract insights and deepen analysis into your financial data with our AI-infused application that significantly reduces time-to-value.
