

Anaplan's cancellation policy

To provide the most effective and fulfilling learning experience for Anaplan employees, partners, and customers, Anaplan requires a minimum of three registrants in each training session. If the minimum is not met, the Anaplan Enablement team will issue a cancellation notice via email at least 10 business days in advance of the first day of the class, and refund any fees paid by the learner.

If for any reason, a learner can no longer attend a class, the learner must notify the Anaplan instructor at least three business days before the class begins. If a learner cancels less than three days before the class, the learner will incur a cancellation fine of 25 percent of their enrollment fee. If the learner reschedules the training, this fee will be added to the total charge for the new training.
